University of Utah On-Line Faculty Orientation

The University of Utah’s New Faculty Orientation is on-line and consists of a series of self-paced modules. The modules can be accessed through the Internet from any location. The orientation modules include benefits overview and enrollment forms, safety, anti-discrimination/sexual harassment, and other areas that are relevant to the position. Benefit enrollment forms must be received by the Benefits Department within the first 90 days of hire.

How to access the on-line Faculty Orientation Modules:

Go to https://www.hr.utah.edu/training/orientation.php
Click on “Faculty, Post Doctoral Fellows and Academic Staff Orientation”
Log onto the “Online Orientation” with uNID and CIS password.
